

Columnar Apples ~ Alpha Nursery

Want edible fruit trees for a small space or container? Try these varieties from the Urban Apple® and Colonnade® series. Ideal for living fence rows, plant two or more varieties for best fruit set.

Alpha Nursery Sales

Call or email today to order yours! 503-390-1286 or 800-293-1286 Email: Info@alphanursery.com

Blushing Delight™ Columnar Urban Apple®

Produces full size, green apples blushed with red and yellow that offer a light, sweet flavor. Fruits in the first year planted and ripens by mid-September. Requires a pollinizer for ideal fruit set, use Tasty Red™ or Tangy Green™.

Matures to 8-10ft tall x 2ft wide. Zone 4-9 _____

Tangy Green™ Columnar Urban Apple®

Produces crisp green apples with a tart flavor in the first year planted. Ripens mid-September. Requires a pollinizer for ideal fruit set, best cross-pollinators are Tasty Red™ and Blushing Delight™.

Matures to 8-10ft tall x 2ft wide. Zone 4-9 _____

Tasty Red™ Columnar Urban Apple®

Produces medium red fruit by mid-September. Fruits within the first year planted. Flesh is firm, sweet and juicy. Requires a pollinizer for ideal fruit set, best cross-pollinators are Blushing Delight™ or Tangy Green™.

Matures to 8-10ft tall x 2ft wide. Zone 4-9 _____

Colonnade® Bolero Columnar Apple

Produces green fruit with a red blush. Flesh is crisp and juicy with great flavor for fresh eating and cooking. Needs another variety for cross-pollination, such as Colonnade® Flamenco or Colonnade® Polka.

Matures to 10ft tall x 3ft wide. Zone 4 _____

Colonnade® Flamenco Columnar Apple

Produces dark green apples with a red blush in late autumn. Great flavor for fresh eating. Needs another variety for cross-pollination, such as Colonnade® Bolero or Colonnade® Polka.

Matures to 10ft tall x 3ft wide. Zone 4 _____

Colonnade® Polka Columnar Apple

Produces dark green apples with an occasional rose blush. Flavor is best for fresh eating. Needs another variety for cross-pollination, such as Colonnade® Bolero or Colonnade® Flamenco.

Matures to 10ft tall x 3ft wide. Zone 4 _____

